CAUTION

On November 14, 2017, at approximately 7:50 am, two unidentified armed subjects robbed a Dunbar armored truck while the ATMs were being serviced at the Bank of America, 102 North Broad Street, Winder, Georgia 30529. The subjects were wearing black pants, black pullovers, gloves, and white scream masks. The subjects waited behind bushes until the guard removed the cassettes from the ATM, filled the cassettes with money, and started back to the ATM with the cassettes. At that point, the subjects came out from behind the bushes and ordered the guard to the ground. One of the subjects took the guard's .357 caliber pistol and waved it at the driver of the armored truck. The subjects grabbed four cassettes containing the money and went back behind the bushes from the direction they came.

SHOULD BE CONSIDERED ARMED AND DANGEROUS
